iii.	Advisor/Director Academic Affairs	-	Member
iv.	Director Admissions	-	Member
v.	Director Examinations	-	Member
vi.	Director Students Affairs	-	Member
vii.	Director International Office	-	Member

e) Out of 8 recommended students, the Rector will approve names of 4 primary & 2 standby candidates to go to York St. John University under the Exchange Program. The standby candidates will only be preferred, if any primary candidate is unable to go due to personal or unforeseen reasons.

f) The selected students must sign a written bond with Bahria University to return to Pakistan to continue their remaining studies with Bahria University or to complete remaining degree requirements.

g) The responsibility of accommodation arrangement in UK, during the course of stay, will be on student. The International office will assist the selected students in finding suitable accommodation. In addition to the expenses pertaining to accommodation, students will also be responsible for travelling & visa expenses, medical/health insurance or any additional service charges they wish to avail.

h) The student will defer their semester prior going to York St. John University under the Exchange Programme. There shall be no tuition fee charged for this process. The decision on duration & number of semesters, to defer, is to be taken by the relevant Head of Department according to number of days the student will spend at York St. John University under exchange program. The student must adhere to departure and return dates as specified by his/her department.

i) The duration of the semester(s) studies abroad will not be counted towards the calculation of time bar.

Eligibility for Honors & Awards:

j) Students availing the exchange programme at York St John University will be eligible for academic honors & awards, as long as they are taking full semester loads in their studies at Bahria University and completing remaining degree requirement with their batch of registration.

k) If, as a result of the exchange activity, any of their courses are affected, these students would be permitted to make up for the shortfall (of the affected courses only) on return to Bahria University either during the summer session, if offered, or during succeeding regular semester, in excess to their regular course load.

l) If during the summer session,
   i. the students take shortfall courses, they will be awarded actual grades and no capping will apply.
   ii. the students take any course, which were not affected by the exchange programme, summer session rules will apply and the students will become ineligible for Honors & Awards.

Transfer of Credits as a result of an Outbound Exchange Program:

m) Student interested in registering for the courses at York St. John University, for which they can avail credits transfer at Bahria University, shall be properly advised by the relevant Head of Department about the compatibility of the courses they wish to take, based on the course content, before departure.

n) The student must inform their Head of Department about the possible courses they wish to take at York St. John University along with the course outline. A preliminary meeting of the Equivalence Committee should take place, before the departure of student. The committee shall give clear instructions to the student, in writing, on a prescribed form (attached), on the course(s) he/she can take to avail credits transfer, against course(s) of similar nature, at Bahria University as per the road map of the program he/she is studying.

o) The final decision on credits transfer is to be taken, on return of the student, and successful completion of the courses, as per following criteria:

   i. Students applying for credits transfer are to submit original interim transcript and the course outlines of the course(s) studied at York St. John University to their relevant Head of Department (HOD) on return. The HOD will then formulate an Equivalence Committee to make final recommendations to their relevant Director of Institute. The Director will then forward recommendation of the Equivalence Committee for final approval to Advisor/Director Academic Affairs. There shall be no fee charged from the student for credits transfer.

   ii. Credits transfer of courses will only be allowed for Degree level programs (equivalent to similar level program at Bahria University) offered on campus.

   iii. Credits transfer for only those courses will be allowed for which a course with similar standard, credit hours and matching description is available in the relevant academic program of Bahria University.
